

Our Shared Travel and Code of Conduct Guidelines

Group Trip Dhigurah |

We're happy to have you as part of this journey ♥

To ensure that we experience a safe, respectful, and unforgettable time together as a group, the following rules apply to all participants:

1. Community & Respect

We are traveling as a community.

I commit to:

- treating fellow travelers, hosts, locals, and on-site partners with respect
- respecting the cultural characteristics of the Maldives and the local islands
- following instructions from the organizer, hosts, and local guides
- refraining from any behavior that endangers or significantly disrupts others

Our goal: a safe and appreciative group atmosphere.

2. Safety & Personal Responsibility

I am aware that certain activities (e.g. boat trips, snorkeling, water sports) involve typical, general risks.

I confirm that:

- I am physically fit to participate in the booked activities
- I will follow all safety instructions
- I will not knowingly expose myself to recognizable dangers

If I have any health limitations (e.g. cardiovascular issues, respiratory illnesses, panic reactions in water), I will inform the organizer before the start of the trip.

3. Boat and Snorkeling Tours

The following also applies to boat and snorkeling excursions:

- I will follow all instructions given by the crew and guides without exception
- I will only enter the water if I feel safe
- I confirm that I can swim
- I will use the provided safety equipment properly
- I will respect environmental and nature protection rules (no touching corals or marine animals)

I am aware that ocean currents, weather conditions, and natural circumstances cannot be fully controlled.

4. Alcohol & Local Laws

I am aware that special legal regulations apply in the Maldives.

I commit to complying with them.

Any behavior that endangers the group's safety or violates local laws may result in exclusion from individual activities or from the trip.

5. No Independent Organization of Additional Group Activities

To ensure the safety of all participants, I will not organize additional group activities outside the official program that may involve risks.
